

Much & Many #03

Put little or few:

_____ food	_____ homework	_____ rooms
_____ pancakes	_____ pen	_____ milk
_____ cheese	_____ opportunities	_____ pies
_____ news	_____ wood	_____ snow
_____ times	_____ mushrooms	_____ tea
_____ work	_____ butter	_____ advice
_____ people	_____ bags	_____ information
_____ children	_____ lemons	_____ hair
_____ juice	_____ money	_____ questions

Complete the sentences with “little” or “few”:

1. There are _____ balloons on Tim’s party.
2. We have _____ information.
3. Mandy has _____ food at home.
4. Ben borrows _____ books from the library.
5. There are _____ apples on that tree?
6. Thomas sells _____ cars a month.
7. _____ children are sitting.
8. The visitors drank _____ wine.
9. There are _____ cows on the fields.
10. There are _____ churches in this town.
11. There is _____ juice in the bottle?
12. There is _____ furniture in his flat.
13. Tony has _____ friends?
14. I can see _____ birds.
15. The baby speaks _____ words.
16. I cook _____ soup at night.
17. I only have _____ time. I’m late.
18. Sarah knows _____ words in German.
19. Dad fried _____ sausages for dinner.
20. There are _____ pens on the table.

Put little or few:

little food	little homework	few rooms
few pancakes	few pens	little milk
little cheese	few opportunities	few pies
little news	little wood	little snow
few times	few mushrooms	little tea
little work	little butter	little advice
few people	few bags	little information
few children	few lemons	little hair
little juice	little money	few questions

Complete the sentences with “little” or “few”:

1. few balloons
2. little information
3. little food
4. few books
5. few apples
6. few cars
7. few children
8. little wine
9. few cows
10. few churches
11. little juice
12. little furniture
13. few friends
14. few birds
15. few words
16. little soup
17. little time
18. few words
19. few sausages
20. few pens