

Some & Any #01

Choose “some” or “any” to complete the sentences:

1. We need some bananas.
2. We don't have _____ oranges at home.
3. She always puts _____ sugar in her coffee.
4. _____ of my friends are at the party.
5. Thanks! I don't need _____ help.
6. Do you know _____ good restaurants near here?
7. We have _____ homework to do.
8. There aren't _____ boys in my family.
9. There are _____ apples on the basket.
10. I need one egg and _____ flour for the cake.
11. Are there _____ flowers in the jar?
12. We see _____ dolphins in the sea.
13. Can I have _____ water, please?
14. Does he need _____ money?
15. The movie is on. Don't make _____ noise.
16. There are _____ exercise books on the floor.
17. Is there _____ lemonade left?
18. Sue doesn't have _____ friends.
19. Would you like _____ coffee?
20. There is _____ food for the dog.
21. Do you have _____ good news?
22. Can I take _____ cake?
23. Do they need _____ drinks?
24. There is _____ fresh milk in the fridge.
25. No, they don't have _____ pets at home.

Choose “some” or “any” to complete the sentences:

1. some bananas.
2. any oranges at home.
3. some sugar in her coffee.
4. some of my friends are at the party.
5. any help.
6. any good restaurants near here?
7. some homework to do.
8. any boys in my family.
9. some apples on the basket.
10. some flour for the cake.
11. any flowers in the jar?
12. some dolphins in the sea.
13. some water, please?
14. any money?
15. any noise.
16. some exercise books on the floor.
17. any lemonade left?
18. any friends.
19. some coffee?
20. some food for the dog.
21. any good news?
22. some cake?
23. some drinks?
24. some fresh milk in the fridge.
25. any pets at home.