

Beautiful People

Discussion before the song:

When a regular, simple couple suddenly enter "the beautiful people's" world they realize that they don't fit as much, although they just keep being themselves all the time. Then they give up that people for good without giving up their own world.

As the song opens a discussion about frivolous people, emptiness of life, character, ect., here we have a nice conversation topic.

Open the conversation asking the students about their opinions using the questions bellow, you can add some of your own, and they listen to the song and if possible they watch the clip.

Also, there are lots of informal contractions to be clarified and interesting vocabulary.

1. What is the definition of beauty for you?
2. Who is the most beautiful person in your opinion?
3. In your opinion, is beauty important? Explain.
4. If you had to chose between beauty and wisdom, which one would you chose?
5. Do beautiful people have power?
6. Is inner beauty important? How?
7. Would you ever date someone not attractive?
8. What do you think about beauty pageants?
9. Does beauty affects self-esteem, or self-esteem affects beauty?
10. Do you think people are more concerned about their looks nowadays? Explain.

After the song:

1. Who are the beautiful people the talks about?
2. Do they fit in the beautiful people's world? Why?
3. What does Ed Sheeran mean when he says "We are not Beautiful"?
